Hi Quinton,

Thank you for communicating with that me. I actually just sent you an email with slight edits to the resolution you sent us on Sunday, but understand if you do not wish to spend more time crafting it.

Yours,

William

My suggestions are being ignored and I'm being put in an untenable situation. I'm happy to meet with you again after this storm has blown over, but I cannot support the resolution as written or waste more time trying to craft it into something I can support at this time.

Got it, thanks. And also, if it would be helpful for anyone in your group to speak with Quinton about what we discussed today, the merits of not forcing a vote, please make sure they are connected to us
